

Vote to Decide Gala Show or Dance

Ask Names Be Stricken From Ballot

In Letters That Insinuate Election a Theta Frameup, Polmantier and Eggen Do Not Choose to Run.

TIETSORT DENIAL

In satirical letters to Woodrow Tietsort, president of the student council, two candidates picked by the council asked that their names be withdrawn from the ballot Monday.

Paul Polmantier and Harold Eggen, chosen by the council to run for chairman and senior committeeman, respectively, spoke derisively of the politics of the University and refused to be run as "dummy candidates."

The student council had resorted to the direct appointment of candidates for the Gala Day election when only one petition had been filed for each office. All of those who filed were members of the Theta Phi Delta fraternity.

Names Removed

The names of Polmantier and Eggen were taken from the ballot. Paul Lange's name was inserted to replace Polmantier's, but nobody was chosen to take the place of Eggen. His opponent was Glenn Cunningham.

According to Woodrow Tietsort, the constitution of the student council requires that the council pick candidates for an election if there have not been at least two filed for each office. He denied that Polmantier and Eggen had been chosen as "dummies."

The letters follow:

Dear Mr. Tietsort:

I have seen by the last issue of The Gateway that I have been nominated as candidate for Gala

Speaker Criticizes Hitler Movement

E. H. Terrell Terms Economic Self-Sufficiency Suicide in Class Lecture.

Attempts at economic self-sufficiency were termed suicide by E. H. Terrell, a representative of the National Council for the Prevention of War, in an address before the international economic relations class in room 3 Tuesday, February 6. Mr. Terrell recently returned from a trip to Germany, where he studied the Hitler movement.

He told of Hitler's attempts to curb lard imports from America by establishing hog concentration camps where the government sacrificed meat in the animals in order to extract every possible bit of lard.

"This reacts disastrously toward the middle west," Terrell said. "Formerly one-third of our lard exports went to Germany. With the German market closed, lard has become a glut on the market and hog prices fall."

Coeds in Disguise Hitch-Hike to Peru

Mary Brown and Barbara Fair, University coeds, hitch-hiked to the Omaha-Peru game Tuesday night.

Disguised as horsewomen who had lost their horses, they thumbed a ride from Albright at 5:45 Tuesday evening, and were taken as far as Nebraska City. After a five-block walk, they were picked up by a traveling salesman and given a ride into Peru. They were a half hour early for the game.

They rode home with Mary Rigg after the game.

The girls attribute their success to the fact that they were wearing riding habits. Automobile drivers could not let them break a riding habit.

Three 'Y' Events Won by Omaha

Red Olson Wins College 880 Yard Run, Cards Take Relay, Walsh Fencing Champ.

Omaha university men fared well on the board track of the City auditorium Monday night, February 19, as they participated in the "Y" sports carnival.

LeRoy "Red" Olson, freshman aspirant for the Omaha track team and former Tech track star, captured the college 880 yard run in the record time of 2:02.4. In the exhibition shotput event Howard Sorenson, last year letterman, took second place with a heave of 47 feet, 3 inches, and Bill Presley, freshman, took third with 42 feet, 5 inches.

Travis Dixon, "Tippy" Tyler, "Red" Olson, and Kenneth Slump ran an exhibition medley relay, no other contestants showing up.

Harry Walsh took first place in the fencing tournament at the "Y" carnival, winning both in foil and epee, and placing second in saber.

New Club Names Callin President

An International Relations club with Edwin Callin, '35, president, and Mary Alice Snider, '35, secretary-treasurer, was formed in room 3 Tuesday afternoon. Dr. Claude W. Stimson, associate professor of economics, is sponsor of the club.

The purpose of the club, Dr. Stimson said, is to build up a library of books on international relations and to promote an unbiased study of "internationalism." He added that the club will probably become affiliated with the Carnegie Foundation, which is interested in promoting the study of international relations and which will donate books for the club library.

Members are: Edwin Callin, Manville Woodyard, Glenn Cunningham, Mary Alice Snider, Woodrow Tietsort, Verne Sunderland, Franklin Buxton, Frank Kurtz, Harvel Barnes, Stanley Putnam, Edward Gutmann, Janet Marks, Avis Christenson, and Royal Wagner.

Cards Annex Basket Title By Peru Win

Redbirds Off to Flying Start, Get Dizzy at the Heights, but Come Down to Earth Again in Last Few Minutes' Play.

VINER IS STAR

By HOWARD WILCOX

For the second time in three years, Omaha university won the N. I. A. A. basketball pennant by defeating Peru normal, 38 to 25, in a contest at Peru Tuesday night.

The Cardinals ran up a huge lead in the first few minutes of play, then watched it dwindle to two points before applying the pressure that put the game on ice. Omaha was out in front 21 to 6, a few minutes before the end of the first half. Led by Moore and Panches, the Bobcats played desperately till near the end of the third quarter, when with the count 25 to 23 their luck gave out. Curtis managed several close-ups near the end of the game.

Mel Viner left the game with four personal fouls, but was the high individual scorer of the evening, combining five field goals with four free throws. Curtis accounted for eleven, running his grand total to 179.

The victory was the seventh in the conference for the Cards, who need only to win against Kearney tonight to complete a perfect N. I. A. A. record.

U. of Iowa To Accept Credits

Report Received Recently Gives Accreditation to Undergrads and Graduates of Omaha.

Credits from the University of Omaha will be accepted at the University of Iowa, according to the report of H. C. Dorcas and F. C. Ensign, inspectors from Iowa who visited the University January 5. The report was received January 18.

The committee recommended to President Jessup of the University of Iowa that it co-operate with Omaha, receive undergraduates with full accreditation, and admit graduates in graduate departments and professional colleges of the Iowa university.

The committee commented on what it termed the "youthful atmosphere" among the faculty of Municipal university.

Graham Tells Club About 'Real Estate'

Regent W. T. Graham addressed the Business Administration club during assembly period last Friday. He spoke on "Real Estate" and described some of the major transactions in Omaha. After the talk he answered questions of students and faculty members who were present.

O'Brien Quits Place On Student Council

Dick O'Brien, sophomore Student Council representative, has resigned, Woodrow Tietsort, president of the Council, said Wednesday. No reason for O'Brien's resignation was given.

Troy Woerner, '35, was appointed to fill the vacancy until a successor is elected.

FERA Students Assigned to Work

Those Chosen by Scholarship Committee Have an Unusual Chance, Says Thompson.

FERA students were assigned to faculty members, for whom they will do clerical work, by the faculty scholarship committee at a meeting in room 6 Wednesday afternoon. They will be paid $15 a month for their services by the federal government under the provisions of the federal emergency relief administration act.

President W. E. Sealock, chairman of the scholarship committee, went to Lincoln yesterday, where he gave the state FERA head a list of students' names who had been approved by the faculty and the type of work they would do.

This had to be done before the University could receive the federal funds with which to pay the students, Dr. Sealock said at the meeting Wednesday. He added that he did not know when the money was coming, but that there was no need for worry on that score, as it was assured.

Dr. W. H. Thompson, dean of men and a member of the committee, spoke. He said that the FERA students had an unusual opportunity to get an education, in return for which they must keep their scholastic work up to standard. (Continued on Page 2)

Sigma Tau Discusses Heroes of Literature

Short talks on "Heroes and Heroines of Literature" featured the program at the Sigma Tau Delta meeting Wednesday evening in the Women's Faculty building.

A general talk on the subject was given by Gladys Reynolds. Other speakers and their subjects were:

Helen Svoboda, Soames Forsythe; George Thatcher, Lady Macbeth; Gunnar Horn, Hedda Gabler; Jay Planteen, Cyrano de Bergerac; Catherine Pape, Rebecca; Pearl Dansky, Pamela; and Russell Widoe, Becky Sharpe.

Rowena Anderson and Jeannette Winters, alumnae members of the society, were hostesses.

PARTY FOR MISS KURTZ

Miss Gloria Kurtz, commercial instructor, was honored at a birthday dinner Wednesday evening at the Tulip tea room.

Those attending were the Misses Alice Smith, Virginia Hallock, Clara Stapp, Pearl Schaefer, and Mrs. Margaret McConnell.

To Elect Five Gala Officers In Poll Today

Chairman and Committeeman to Be Chosen; Freshmen Will Vote to Fill Vacancy on Student Council Also.

IN FACULTY BUILDING

Whether or not an all-school dance will replace the traditional Gala Night show will be determined by students at an election in the Men's Faculty building from ten to two o'clock today.

The Student Council at a meeting Wednesday noon approved a motion to permit the student body to decide between the Gala Night show or the all-school dance. Council members felt that there was little student interest in the Gala Night show.

The usual Gala Day ceremonies will not be affected by this vote.

Five officers to arrange Gala Day festivities this year will be chosen in an all-university election in the Men's Faculty building today.

The positions to be filled by winners of today's election are those of Gala Day chairman and a committeeman representing each class. The polls will be open between 10 a. m. and 2 p. m.

At the same time freshmen will vote for a student council representative to replace Wilbur Walker, who has enrolled at the University of Nebraska.

The following are candidates: Chairman: Troy Woerner, Bill Wood, and Paul Lange.

Senior Committeeman: Glenn Cunningham.

Junior Committeeman: Dan Macken and Howard Wilcox.

Sophomore Committeeman: John Moucka and Don Benjamin.

Freshman Committeeman: Carson Rogers and Leo Quinn.

Freshman Council Member: Lloyd Clayton and Ralph Marshall.

The student council called for petitions from candidates to be in their hands February 14, but at that time only five names, those of Woerner, Cunningham, Macken, Moucka and Rogers had been submitted. The opposing candidates were chosen by the council in a meeting Thursday, February 15.

Anti-War Speaker Here Next Week

Frederick J. Libby, executive secretary of the national council for the prevention of war, will speak to students of the University either Tuesday at 3 p. m. at the meeting of the International Relations club or Wednesday morning at a special assembly, according to Dr. Claude W. Stimson, head of the department of economics.

Definite announcement will be made Monday, Dr. Stimson said.

STUDENT BOOK STORE

WHY not a co-operative book store for Municipal University? We refer to an organization operated by students, under faculty supervision, that would not only act as a clearing house for selling used books, but might sell new books and supplies at less than the retail cost.

This is nothing new in the collegiate world. Co-operative book stores are in operation at Chicago, Stanford, and several other American universities. Thousands of dollars have been saved by students who purchased books and supplies at these stores.

At present there is no way in which students having old texts to sell can meet those who would purchase them. A co-operative book store would serve as a clearing house where the seller could leave his books for buyers to examine and purchase. New books could be sold at a figure near cost, thus saving students several dollars per year. A co-operative book store could operate on a smaller margin than the present University book store. Students would appreciate this saving.

A co-operative book store could be managed by a board consisting of students and faculty members. This group would appoint from the student body persons to handle the actual details of the work. The Gateway is operated in a similar manner.

Today Municipal University is growing and expanding. To establish a co-operative book store now will be much easier than several years later. A little student interest in the project is all that is necessary to start the ball a-rolling.

POWER OF THE PRESS

NOTE: Dr. Sealock has asked The Gateway to accept payment for his subscription.

HOUSEKEEPERS

MRS. RENE STEVENS, dean of women, lamented in last week's Gateway that the University budget could not provide for the services of a housekeeper for the Women's Faculty building.

The same issue of the paper announced the employment of twenty-eight girls for part time work, to be paid for with federal funds.

The coincidence is surely a happy one. What better employment could be found for two to four of these girls than that of part time "housekeepers" of the rooms so carefully planned and furnished by Mrs. Stevens and Mrs. James Bednar?

Judging from newspaper accounts of the Rainbow tea there must have been at least two hostesses for every guest.

We hasten to explain that the edges of last week's papers were burned by the printing press and not by the ads.

The Thetas seem the only ones interested in having a Gala Day this year.

—Stephen Leacock.

We can't say that our professors aren't doing their best.

—Westbrook Pegler.

Listen Squirrels

By MARTIN SPECKTER

I'm going to go high hat on youse guys and youse gals. Today this column will be directed at only the intellectuals of the school. (Both of them read The Gateway. That's what makes them intellectual.)

The sun is shining and the birds are twittering and the students are making hay and all that sort of thing.

Today is no time to go to school. The sheen of the grass appeals to me and I would rest my weary bones on the campus grounds. But I wear a pair of white cords, and grass stains make for bigger laundry bills. (I see that Bill Corson has laundered his cords. Before, they could stand up by themselves.)

Several musically-inclined students are agitating for a school band. They certainly have plenty of band material out here. We have more musicians than Professor Cox can shake a stick at.

Henry Wadsworth Longfellow was born in Portland, Maine, while his parents were traveling in Europe. He made many fast friends; among the fastest were Alice and Phoebe Cary.

Classroom Bells

Hear those awful, awful bells—
Classroom bells!
Hellishly annoying as the volume ever wells!

How they clangle, clangle, clangle,
In the silence of the room!
Tired nerves begin to jangle,
And thoughts together tangle,
Like threads upon a loom.
Ringing years, years, years,
Driving me to tortured tears,
As that never-ceasing, unsymphonic sound within me swells.
From the bells, bells, bells, bells,
Bells, bells, bells!
Oh, ye gods, to silence doom those awful bells!

—Milton Lund.

ASK THAT NAMES BE TAKEN OFF BALLOT

Day chairman. I do not want my name to appear on the ballot.

I realize that I have been put up as a "dummy candidate" in order that certain political forces can dominate this campus. I also realize that there are more competent men for the job and sincerely suggest that your honorable body take this into consideration. I remain,

Yours for a successful Gala Day,
PAUL POLMANTIER.

"Not One of the Elite"

Dear Mr. Tietzort:

Having noticed in the last issue of The Gateway that I have been nominated for senior representative of the Gala Day committee, I request that my name be withdrawn.

Being among those who find it necessary to work in order to pay school fees, and not being a member of the socially elite, I would not find the amount of time to spend on the project which I believe it merits—were I unfortunate enough to be elected. I prefer to leave these offices to be battled out between those political groups which so zealously desire them and to spend my own time to better advantage.

Sincerely yours,
HAROLD EGGEN.

"No Politics"

"These two men were chosen through no political lineup whatever," declared Tietzort. "They were not put up to run as 'dummies.' If it had been our purpose to fix the election, we could have defied the constitution and let those who had filed run alone.

"If the school would take half an interest in Gala Day, we would not have any trouble."

STUDENT FORUM

Editor, The Gateway:

THANK YOU, in a letter to the Student Forum last week, suggests that The Gateway sponsor a campaign for the organization of the Barbs.

We've heard of beer with pretzels and ham with eggs, but who ever heard of organized Barbs?

To mould the non-Greek students of Municipal University into an organized party would be to destroy the principles which Barbs represent.

We have one element at the University, the Greeks, who attempt to see alike and act alike on all school matters. All students, who are diametrically opposed to organized thinking and mass action are not Greeks. They are Barbs, and to organize them would be to form a Greek party with an English name.

THANK YOU writes that such an organization should not be impossible. It would not be impossible. But such an organization would have no excuse for its existence.

NO THANK YOU.

Dramatic Students Of University Give Recital Wednesday

Dramatic students of the University will present two one-act plays at a recital Wednesday evening, February 28, at 7:30 in the school auditorium. James Barrie's "The Twelve Pound Look" and "The Clod" will be given by Mrs. Jean Jarmin's day and night classes, respectively. Dr. Gilbert W. James' pupils will present several readings.

The recital is open to the public, with no admission charge.

PRACTICE TEACHERS MEET

Practice teachers met at the home of Dr. L. O. Taylor Monday evening to discuss their problems. Dr. L. N. Garlough addressed the group on "What Is Expected of the Practice Teacher."

Refreshments were served.

The group will meet again March 20, when E. M. Hosman, director of the University placement bureau, will speak.

RECREATION WORKERS

Nine University students and former students are employed at the various recreational centers in the city in connection with CWS projects. They are: Mary Ann Bauer, Lillian Hill, Ursula Hoffman, James McCreary, Annabelle Oberst, Evelyn Schnackel, Martin Thomas, Angeline White, and Irene Williams.

Chem Club Plans Industrial Tour

Committees for the all-day tour through Omaha industries planned by the University Chemistry club were announced Wednesday.

Chairmen of the various committees are: Elbert Holsington, excursion; William Haberstroh, transportation; Richard Schaefer, dinner; Alfred Cook, entertainment; and Gustav Hershman, publicity.

The tour will be held April 20. Students from outstate colleges will be invited to attend.

Prof. V. Royce West spoke at the German club meeting Monday noon.

Plan German Club's Second Declamatory Contest in March

The German club will hold its second declamatory contest of the year late in March, Miss Bertha Mueller, German instructor, said Wednesday.

Selections from Goethe will be given and students in Dr. V. Royce West's advanced German class will give short talks on Goethe's life. German books will be awarded as prizes.

Olive Dell Eby, dramatic student, read "Who's Afraid?" at the Business Women's dinner at the Aquila Court tea room last week.

Firm

Every Lucky Strike is made from the finest tobacco and only the center leaves — because those are under-developed — not ripe. They would give a harsh smoke. Not the bottom leaves — because those are inferior in quality. They grow close to the ground, and are tough, coarse and always sandy. The center leaves are the mildest leaves, for which farmers are paid higher prices. Only these center leaves are used in making Luckies the fully packed cigarette — so round, so firm — free from loose ends. That's why Luckies draw easily, burn evenly. And remember — "It's toasted" — for throat protection — for finer taste.

Nineteen Pass Tests In English Proficiency

Nineteen students satisfied the University requirements in English by passing the English proficiency examination given Tuesday, January 30, by Professor V. Royce West, acting head of the English department. The examination consisted of a grammar test and a composition test.

The following students passed both grammar and composition tests: Alice Coolidge, William Durand, Will Corson, Jim Musselman, Henry Levels, Ethyl Miroff, Herbert Marks, Pauline Maurer, Robert Lloyd, Ruth Brodbeck, John Childe, LaReine Miller, John Pearson, Beth Platt, Frances Saar, Robert E. Johnson, Adolph J. Schneider, Lyman Cook, and Anna Goodbinder.

SCIENCE SCHOLARSHIPS

Two one thousand dollar awards will be available to Municipal University students for proficiency in scientific research, according to an announcement sent to the science department by the Electro-chemical Society of Columbia University. Both awards are of a world-wide nature and will be given regardless of race, sex, or country.

One of these awards, the Edward Weston Fellowship in Electrochemistry, is restricted to those under thirty who have finished an undergraduate course. The prize, which is offered annually, will be given March 1. This fellowship is concerned only with electrochemistry and may be returned to the winner of the previous year.

The other award is the Edward Goodrich Acheson Gold Medal and Prize, which the society offers every two years for any or all of several services. A new theory, invention, or discovery, or some other special service to the society is the basis for the award.

Night Scholars See Masculine Mae West

Muny university night school students at the Y. M. C. A. came up and saw Mae West last night.

At least an impersonation of Mae by Frank Johanson, 2581 Pratt street, a member of the Sigma Rho Pi fraternity, was the bright spot of the evening. The affair was the twenty-sixth annual student banquet in the assembly room at the Y. M. C. A.

Dr. Frederick J. Wearne was the toastmaster and the guest speaker was the Rev. Charles J. Bready, whose subject was: "If I Had a Million Dollars!"

Specialties were numbers by the Y. M. C. A. string trio, Ray Suber's "One Man Show," and Sigma Rho Pi's breach of promise suit: "Mae West Versus Howard Lov-em-al."

There are six departmental honorary fraternities at the Municipal University of Omaha.

Each year Turkey and Greece ship us thousands of bales of fine tobaccos—

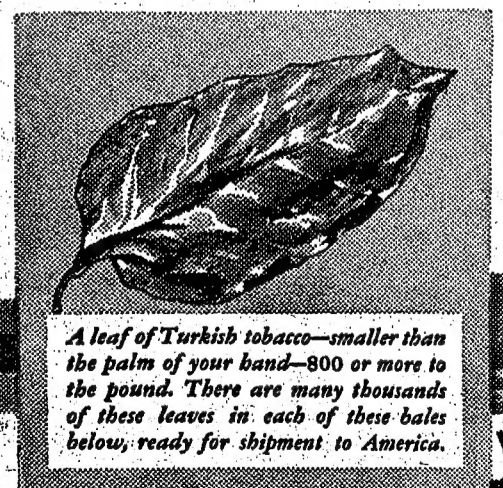

But why send 4,000 miles for tobacco?

...because spicy, aromatic Turkish is the best seasoning there is for a cigarette.

It adds something to flavor and aroma that no other tobacco can give.

Chesterfield uses Turkish tobacco—from Samsoun, Smyrna, Cavalla and Xanthi.

Then it blends and cross-blends them with various kinds of choice home-grown tobaccos in the right balance to give you a cigarette that's milder, a cigarette that tastes better.

A leaf of Turkish tobacco—smaller than the palm of your hand—800 or more to the pound. There are many thousands of these leaves in each of these bales below, ready for shipment to America.
